By skipping the dealership and shopping online, customers save valuable time and money. Carvana's new way to buy and sell a car gives consumers an easy, transparent, customer-centric experience with the peace of mind that comes with a 7-day return policy. As an upgrade to the traditional test drive, customers have the time to ensure the vehicle fits their life; install the car seats and see how it handles through mountain passes.

All 15,000+ vehicles in Carvana's national inventory are photographed in 360 degrees, so customers get a high-definition virtual tour of every vehicle. Additionally, every Carvana vehicle is Carvana Certified, meaning it has undergone a rigorous 150-point inspection, has no frame damage and has never been in a reported accident. Features, imperfections and updated information about open safety recalls are listed on the car's vehicle description page.

"Colorado residents have so many different needs when it comes to a vehicle," said Ernie Garcia, founder and CEO of Carvana. "We're proud to offer Colorado Springs, Boulder, Fort Collins and Greeley a national inventory of more than 15,000 vehicles, paired with as-soon-as-next-day vehicle delivery so they easily and quickly get exactly what they need without ever having to step foot in a dealership."

Launching in Colorado Springs, Boulder, Fort Collins and Greeley today, Carvana now offers as-soon-as-next-day vehicle delivery in five markets in the state and 122 markets across the U.S.
