Carvana can save customers valuable time and money, allowing them to skip the dealership and shop from the comfort of home or on the go via their mobile device. Carvana vehicles come with a seven-day return policy; an upgrade to the traditional test drive, giving customers the time to ensure their vehicle fits their life. Whether testing out a new body style for the first time or taking it for a spin down the coast, customers get the peace of mind they deserve.

Carvana vehicles are Carvana Certified, having passed a rigorous 150-point inspection, have never been in a reported accident and have no frame damage. Features, imperfections and updated information about open safety recalls are listed on every car's vehicle description page.
