Carvana customers shop online from the comfort of home or on the go via their mobile device, saving valuable time and money by skipping the dealership entirely. Carvana never charges hidden, bogus fees like "documentation fees," which can often be added to the price of a vehicle at the last minute. Additionally, Carvana vehicles also come with a seven-day return policy—an upgrade to the traditional test-drive—giving customers the peace of mind and time to ensure that their vehicle fits their needs. Portland area customers can test out how a roof rack on their new SUV handles the kayaks before a trip to Casco Bay, or simply see how the cargo space handles a week's worth of groceries.

Carvana pioneered online car buying, including its patented 360-degree virtual vehicle tour, where customers can view high-definition photography of every vehicle, inside and out. Carvana vehicles have passed a rigorous 150-point inspection, have never been in a reported accident and have no frame damage. Features, imperfections and updated information about open safety recalls are listed on every car's vehicle description page.

Customers looking to trade in their vehicle, or sell a vehicle, can also skip the dealership by simply entering their VIN or license plate number on Carvana.com, answer a few questions and Carvana can pick up the vehicle and bring them a check, as soon as the next day.

"We're on a mission to change the way people buy and sell cars, and now Portland area residents will be able to enjoy the ease and convenience that comes with as-soon-as-next-day delivery," said Ernie Garcia, Carvana founder and CEO. "We're confident area customers will embrace The New Way to Buy a Car® and we look forward to growing our presence across the state."

Carvana now offers as-soon-as-next-day vehicle delivery to customers in 310 cities across the U.S.
