Founded in 2018 in Salt Lake City, Utah, The Professional Pickleball Association is the premier professional pickleball circuit in the United States. The PPA ranks the top male and female pickleball players in the world, awarding millions of dollars in prize money each year, with tournament events in dozens of cities across Arizona, California, Utah, Nevada, Georgia, Florida, and more. 2022 saw the PPA host more than 20 events at world-class facilities, with more than 25 events across 13 markets, and five major championships planned for 2023.

"At Carvana, we believe that driving happiness can extend beyond buying, selling and trading in cars. Our promise is to create joyful experiences for our customers at every turn, so this year we're partnering with the Professional Pickleball Association to serve up smiles with the fastest growing community sport in America," said Ryan Keeton, Carvana co-founder and chief brand officer. "In the same spirit as making vehicle ownership straightforward and accessible to everyone, we're helping make pickleball one of the most accessible sports in America by championing players of all levels, all season long, with the sport's premier professional league."

The Professional Pickleball Association has cultivated a one-of-a-kind "Play Where The Pros Play"™ atmosphere, leveraging its reputation as the premier provider of professional and amateur events in the rapidly growing pickleball space.

Carvana's tech-focused approach has improved the way people buy—and sell—cars, demonstrated by its industry-leading Net Promoter Score (NPS) and 4.7 out of 5 star customer experience rating average. Carvana continues to grow, now able to serve more than 80% of the U.S. population across more than 300 markets.
