Carvana Debuts 18th Car Vending Machine, Brings Topeka Area Residents the New Way to Buy a Car (Photo: Business Wire)

Carvana vehicles come with a seven-day return policy, giving customers the peace of mind and time to ensure the vehicle fits their life. Whether it's seeing if the whole crew fits for the drive out to Kauffman for a Royals game, or how it handles the stop-and-go traffic on the Plaza, it's an upgrade to the traditional test-drive. Every Carvana vehicle is Carvana Certified, having passed a rigorous, 150-point inspection, has never been in a reported accident and has no frame damage. Features, imperfections and updated information about open safety recalls are listed on every car's vehicle description page.

"We launched as-soon-as-next-day vehicle delivery to the Kansas City metro area just over a year ago," said Ernie Garcia, founder and CEO of Carvana. "We've found that area residents appreciate our new way to buy a car and as we grow our presence in the Midwest, we're proud to add a Car Vending Machine to Kansas City's skyline, as well as expand our services to Topeka today."

Kansas City is the first Carvana Car Vending Machine location in Missouri and the 18th in the U.S. Additional Car Vending Machines are located in cities across Tennessee, Texas, Florida, North Carolina, Maryland, Arizona, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

In as little as 10 minutes, customers can shop more than 15,000 vehicles on Carvana.com, finance, purchase, trade-in, and schedule as-soon-as-next-day delivery or Car Vending Machine pickup of that vehicle. Customers that choose to pick up at the Car Vending Machine receive a commemorative, oversized Carvana coin to activate the vending process. Surrounded in an immersive, customer-centric setting, the pick-up process takes only minutes, compared to hours at the dealership.
