Carvana pioneered online car buying, including its patented 360-degree virtual vehicle tour, where customers can view vehicles in high-definition, 360-degree photography, inside and out. Carvana vehicles have passed a rigorous 150-point inspection, have never been in a reported accident and have no frame damage. Features, imperfections and updated information about open safety recalls are listed on every car's vehicle description page.

Carvana can save customers valuable time and money, allowing them to skip the dealership and shop from the comfort of home or on the go via their mobile device. Vehicles come with a seven-day return policy and this upgrade to the traditional test drive gives customers the time to ensure their vehicle fits their life, whether installing car seats or seeing if there is plenty of legroom for family outings to Skagit Valley.

Customers looking to trade in their vehicle, or sell a vehicle, can also skip the dealership by simply entering their VIN or license plate number on Carvana.com, answering a few questions, then Carvana can pick up the vehicle and bring them a check, as soon as the next day.

"Today's launch gives us the opportunity to bring our transparent car buying and selling experience to even more customers in the Pacific Northwest," said Ernie Garcia, founder and CEO of Carvana. "We look forward to now offering as-soon-as-next-day vehicle delivery to Mount Vernon area residents, and growing our presence in the region."

Carvana now offers as-soon-as next-day vehicle delivery to customers in 294 cities across the U.S.
